Transfer Process

1. The club will lodge the transfer through the Fox Sports Pulse online system.
2. The previous club has 6 business days to approve or decline the transfer.
3. A transfer can be declined if you are still under contract, haven't returned club property (i.e. jumper) or you owe them money etc.
4. The previous league then has to approve the transfer.
5. Once the transfer is completed you will be notified by us.
6. You will then be required to register yourself online via sporting pulse (instructions will be provided).

Please Note:

- All players are required to abide by the AFL Sydney Code of Conduct
- While players are covered under the leagues JLT insurance program, players are STRONGLY recommended to have private health insurance coverage to cover medical expenses and ambulance fees which the JLT Insurance may not.
